207th STREET REALTIES LLC, 4199
CRYSTAL II RESTAURANT CORP., and ALTAGRACIA I. ABREU,

Defendants

17 Civ. 9724 (VSB)(KHP)
AMENDED COMPLAINT

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff, EDWIN ZAYAS, complaining through his attorneys from the Law Offices of James E. Bahamonde, respectfully alleges against Defendants:

NATURE OF THE CASE

1. In violation of well-settled, decades old law, Defendants have chosen a policy to not remove a variety of unlawful architectural barriers which exist at its public accommodation, and instead, have elected to exclude Plaintiff and all other disabled persons, who use wheelchairs and scooters, from having access to and use of Defendants' public accommodation.
2. Plaintiff files this action on behalf of himself and as an action for those similarly situated, complaining of violations of Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12182 (hereinafter "ADA"), New York State Civil Rights Law § 40-c and 40-d, New York State Human Rights Law § 296 et seq, and New York City Human Rights Law, Admin. Code § 8-107, et seq.
3. Plaintiff seeks damages, declaratory and injunctive relief, as well as fees and costs against the Defendants.

VENUE AND JURISDICTION

4. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343, as this action involves federal questions regarding the deprivation of Plaintiff's rights under the ADA.

5. The Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's allegations arising from Defendants' state law violations pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

6. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to this action, alleged herein, occurred in this district.

7. The jurisdiction of this court is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Sections 1331 and 2201 and through the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq.

PARTIES

8. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, Plaintiff is now, and at all times mentioned in this complaint, a resident of New York, New York.

9. Defendant 207TH STREET REALTIES, LLC is a New York domestic limited liability company authorized by the Secretary of the State of New York to do business in New York State with its principal County of business designated as Kings County.

10. Defendant 207TH STREET REALTIES, LLC is the owner of a commercial property which houses a public accommodation named Guadalupe Restaurant located at 597 West 2, 07th Street, New York, NY 10034.

11. Defendant 4199 CRYSTAL II RESTAURANT CORP. is an inactive New York domestic business corporation unauthorized by the Secretary of the State of New York. As of June 29, 2016, 4199 CRYSTAL II RESTAURANT CORP. has been dissolved by proclamation/annulment of authority.

12. Defendant ALTAGRACIA I. ABREU is a natural person, who, on information and belief, resides in New York County.

CLASS ACTION

13. Plaintiff brings this suit for declaratory and injunctive relief and, as a class action for all those similarly situated, who, as persons who must use wheelchairs, by reason of various disabilities, and who use or desire to use the services and accommodations offered to the public by Defendant, and who are protected by, and are beneficiaries of, the ADA and New York State Law.

14. Plaintiff, complaining for himself and all others similarly situated residents in the City of New York and State of New York hereby alleges: (a) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members, whether otherwise required or permitted, is impracticable; (b) there are questions of law or fact common to the class which predominate over any questions affecting only individual members; (c) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class; (d) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class; and (e) a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

15. References to “Plaintiff” shall be deemed to include the individually named Plaintiffs, and each member of the Class, unless otherwise indicated.

STATUTORY SCHEME

16. The 2010 United States Census indicates that more than 56.6 million persons in the United States have a disability. The 2010 US Census also indicates that more than 1.39 million New Yorkers have a mobility disability.

17. The ADA, New York State Human Rights Law, and New York City [Administrative

Code] Human Rights Law recognize individuals with disabilities as a protected class.

18. It is unlawful for a private entity which owns, leases to or operates a place of public accommodations to discriminate against an individual with a disability.

19. The ADA, New York State Human Rights Law, and New York City Human Rights Law requires a public accommodation to be readily accessible to and usable by a disabled individual.

20. If a public accommodation is altered in the manner that affects or could affect the usability of the public accommodation thereof, it must make alterations in such a manner that, to the maximum extent feasible, the altered portions of the public accommodation are readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities.

21. Where a public accommodation undertakes an alteration that affects or could affect usability of or access to an area of the public accommodation containing a primary function, the entity shall also make the alterations in such a manner that, to the maximum extent feasible, the path of travel to the altered area and the bathrooms, telephones, and drinking fountains serving the altered area, are readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities.

22. All public accommodations, regardless of the year it was built or altered, have the continuous lawful obligation to remove all readily achievable barriers which denies a disabled individual with the opportunity to participate in or benefit from services or accommodations.

23. Failure to remove all readily achievable architectural barriers is defined as disability discrimination in violation of the ADA. See 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv).

24. The ADA requires public accommodations to make reasonable modifications to the policies, practices, or procedures to afford access to persons with disabilities that is equal to the access afforded to individuals without disabilities.

25. The landlord who owns the building that houses a place of public accommodation and the tenant who owns or operates the place of public accommodation have a non-delegable duty to comply with the ADA and New York City Human Rights Law.

26. The landlord and owner of a property which houses a public accommodation are liable for their tenant's failure to comply with the ADA, New York City Human Rights Law or New York State Human Rights Law. Property leases which contain contradictory language is superseded by the ADA.

27. Discriminatory intent is not required to establish liability under ADA, New York City Human Rights Law, and New York State Human Rights Law.
